Randle Loeb - Networks and bringing advocates into the process

Consumers/advocates need to be involved in allocation of funds for accountability.

- Viewpoints of homeless can be at the forefront in the decision making.

Networks beyond Denver (Collaboration is important)

- Must consider the training of the individuals (homeless), so they communicate and feel welcomed; stipends/food?
- How can these funds help the homeless participate in the best way for them?

Liesl Begnaud – Funding Comments

Use and require a common assessment tool, so clients can be referred without redoing an assessment.

- Reduce program shopping

Financial Assistance- we need to provide case management with financial assistance to establish successful outcomes. Case management and funding should be together in order to create successful outcomes.
